Media Steps Groups plc

Media Steps Group plc (the "Company") received notice from its Nominated Adviser, Corporate Synergy Plc, that it is to resign from this role. This notice expires tomorrow, 21 November 2006. If the Company has not appointed a replacement Nominated Adviser by this time its shares will be suspended pending such appointment.

The Company is currently finalising proposals to refinance the Group which will include the appointment of a new Nominated Adviser and will be contacting shareholders shortly with details of these arrangements. Should the Company fail to appoint a Nominated Adviser within one month of tomorrow, however, its shares will be delisted in accordance with the AIM Rules.
