TSE opens a new office in Turkey

The Board of TSE is pleased to announce that it's wholly owned subsidiary, TSE Consulting SA, has furthered its international reach with the establishment of a new office in Istanbul, Turkey.

This new Turkish expansion is geared towards supporting the Turkish government and national sports federations in developing long-term sports strategies and in hosting international and national sports events. TSE Consulting SA has already developed a solid client base in Turkey, and with the fast development of the Turkish economy and the strong sporting traditions in the country, Turkey is a natural next step for the Company.

The new Turkish office will be headed by Orhan Gorbon, a Turkish based consultant. Over the past seven years, Orhan has taken part in many significant sports development projects in Turkey, such as the Bosphorus Cup sailing in Istanbul, the EURO 2012 bid, Istanbul Sports Inc., Olympic athlete development and many others. Orhan is a key and highly respected individual within the Turkish sports world and has a significant role in the growing impact of Turkish sports.

Commenting on the expansion, Lars Haue-Pedersen, Executive Director, said:

"With the addition of an office in Turkey we are pleased that we will now be able to serve our existing clients in the area better and help to increase the impact of Turkish sports on the international level. Our new Turkish team, headed by Orhan, is extremely experienced and knows first hand the high level of interest and investment in sport that is present in Turkey. We are delighted to welcome the team on board and look forward to further expanding our client base in this region."
