Contract with the Brazilian Olympic Committee

TSE Group Plc (AIM: TSEG.L) is delighted to announce that it has signed a new contract through its Sports Performance Division with the Brazilian Olympic Committee to specifically improve Brazil's elite performance planning in the lead up to London 2012 and Rio 2016 Olympic Games.

The contract will be headed by the Senior Consultant of our Sports Performance Division, Steve Roush, who will work with the Brazilian Olympic Committee and the national federations with the goal of improving the performance of athletes at the Olympic Games through the use of proven models of success. In addition to this contract, TSE will provide consultation on sport-related activities for the Rio 2016 organising committee in the lead up to the Olympic Games.

Carlos Arthur Nuzman, Brazilian Olympic Committee President commented:

"The arrival of Steve Roush will bring an immense contribution to the development of Olympic Sports in Brazil. His experience leading the American team during three editions of the Olympic Games will certainly be very useful. His presence will add to the planning being done by the Brazilian Olympic Committee, together with the national federations, for the next Olympic cycle."

Lars Haue-Pedersen, Managing Director of TSE Consulting commented:

"We are extremely honoured to have been brought on by the Brazilian Olympic Committee as they start their planning for 2016. With Steve's expertise and the use of proven models, sport in Brazil will reach new levels. We look forward to working closely with the Brazilian Olympic Committee and the national federation to strengthen Brazil's sports performance over the coming years.
